FOREWORD

Rochdale RUFC recognises its moral and legal obligation to ensure that, the coaches and volunteers who have a responsibility for young people within the club provide them with the highest possible standard of care.

Through the implementation of a policy for the Safeguarding of Young People and the support of its coaches and volunteers, Rochdale RUFC will maintain the professionalism and safeguards of good practice which are associated with the game.

The policy outlines the following key areas:

- It recognises the responsibility of all those involved in the club to safeguard and promote the interests and well being of the young people with whom they are working
- It provides a framework on the recruitment, selection, suitability and deployment of individuals working with young people
- It emphasises the value of working closely in partnership with coaches, parents, professionals and volunteers to protect children and young players from harm and discrimination.
- It acknowledges that abuse does take place in sport and that raising awareness and understanding of the main forms of abuse and establishing communication and reporting procedures if abuse is suspected will further safeguard the young players, coaches and all others working within the club.

SECTION ONE INTRODUCTION

1.1 Anyone under the age of 18 within the club should be considered as a young person for the purposes of this document

1.2 The Safeguarding of all young people is paramount

1.3 All young people, whatever their age gender, culture, ability, language, religious belief, racial origin, and/or sexual identity should be able to enjoy the game in a fun, environment safe from abuse of any kind

1.4 All suspicions and allegations of abuse will be taken seriously and responded to swiftly and appropriately

1.5 All individuals within the club who work with young people will be made aware of good practice in order to ensure that they are not placed in situations where unmerited allegations are made.

1.6 Rochdale RUFC will work with parents/carers to ensure that all youngsters within the club enjoy the game in a safe environment

1.7 Rochdale RUFC recognises the statutory responsibilities of Social Services Departments and the Police to ensure the Safeguarding of young people and is committed to complying with Local Area Child Protection Committee

Procedures

Rochdale RUFC acknowledges that within RFU regulations a male player is to play in the adult game on reaching his 17th birthday. In these circumstances 7.2.4 and 7.3.3 of this policy cannot practically be applied. However, the club recognises its responsibility to be mindful of the safety and well-being of the player.

SECTION TWO - RECOGNISING ABUSE and POOR PRACTICE

In order to provide young people in the club with the best possible experiences and opportunities in Rugby Union, it is imperative that all club members operate within an accepted ethical framework and demonstrate exemplary behaviour. This not only ensures that Rugby Union makes a positive contribution to the development of young people and safeguards their welfare, but also protects all club personnel from false allegations of abuse or poor practice.

It is not always easy to differentiate poor practice from abuse, albeit intentional or unintentional. It is not, therefore, the responsibility of adults within the club to determine whether or not abuse is taking place. It is however their responsibility to identify poor practice and possible abuse and to act if they have a concern about the welfare of a young person/s. The four main types of abuse are:

EMOTIONAL ABUSE

- 2.1 In a rugby situation, emotional abuse may occur when coaches provide repeated negative feedback.
- 2.2 Repeatedly ignore a young player's efforts to progress.
- 2.3 Repeatedly demand performance levels above those of which the young player is capable over emphasise the winning ethic.

ABUSE BY NEGLECT

- 2.4 In a rugby situation neglect may occur when:
- 2.5 Young players are left alone without proper supervision.
- 2.6 A young player is exposed to unnecessary heat or cold without fluids or protection.
- 2.7 A young player is exposed to an unacceptable risk of injury.

PHYSICAL ABUSE

- 2.8 In a rugby situation physical abuse may occur when:
- 2.9 Coaches, Managers or helpers expose young players to exercise/training which disregards the capacity of the players immature and growing body.
- 2.10 Coaches, Managers or helpers expose young players to overplaying, over training or fatigue.
- 2.11 Coaches, Managers or helpers expose young players to alcohol, or give them the opportunity to drink alcohol below the legal age.
- 2.12 Coaches, Managers or helpers expose young players to performance enhancing drugs and recommend that they take them.

SEXUAL ABUSE

2.13 The close proximity of coaches and others, to young people provides opportunities for potential abusers to exploit their position of trust to sexually abuse.

SECTION THREE - BULLYING

3 Bullying is not always easy to define and will not always be an adult abusing a young person. It is often the case that the bully is a young person. There are three main types of bullying:

- Physical e.g. hitting, kicking, theft.
- Verbal e.g. racist or homophobic remarks.
- Emotional e.g. persistent negative feedback.

All of these will include:

3.0 Deliberate hostility and aggression towards a victim

3.1 A victim who is weaker and less powerful than the bully or bullies.

3.2 An outcome which is always painful and distressing for the individual.

3.3 Bullying behaviour may also include.

3.4 Other forms of violence.

3.5 Sarcasm, spreading rumours, persistent teasing.

3.6 Tormenting, ridiculing, humiliation.

3.7 Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures.

3.8 Unwanted physical contact or abusive offensive comments of sexual nature.

The competitive nature of Rugby Union makes it a potential environment for the bully. This may manifest itself in some of the following ways:

3.9 A parent who pushes too hard.

3.10 A coach who adopts a win at all costs philosophy.

3.11 A player who intimidates others.

3.12 An official who is over officious.

The club has an anti-bullying policy (See appendix 4)

SECTION FOUR - ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The role of Rochdale RUFC is

4.1 To appoint a Safeguarding Officer who will act as the first point of contact for concerns about the welfare of young people (see appendix 2 for Terms of Reference).

4.2 To accept that all officers and committee members have a responsibility in this area and be prepared to respond to any indication of poor practice or abuse and to put in place structures and systems to ensure that this is followed in practice.

4.3 To adopt and implement a policy of Best Practice for all adults working with young people (see section 7 and appendix 3).

4.4 To ensure that all relevant members who have regular supervisory contact with children or a management responsibility for those working with young people undertake a Criminal Records Bureau disclosure.

4.5 To ensure that relevant training is available for all those working with young people.

4.6 To identify a disciplinary panel which, where necessary, will be convened to hear case (See appendix 1)

4.7 To keep written records of player attendance, parent contact details.

Coaches Responsibility

4.8 Be familiar with and adhere to the club Child Protection Policy and Best Practice Guidelines.

4.9 Undertake any relevant training provided by the club.

4.10 Undertake a CRB Disclosure.

Parents

4.11 Ensure the club has all relevant details relating to their son or daughter.

4.12 Share any concerns initially with the club Safeguarding officer.

4.13 Be involved in Club Activities.

4.14 Assist in the supervision of the young player where able and when appropriate.

SECTION FIVE - TAKING APPROPRIATE ACTION

CONCERNS ABOUT POOR PRACTICE AND POSSIBLE ABUSE WITHIN THE RUGBY CLUB

This relates to anyone working with young people within the Rugby Club. For example, volunteer coaches, club helpers, administrators.

The club will take all allegations seriously and appropriate action will be pursued.

Allegations will often relate to poor practice where an adult's behaviour is inappropriate and maybe causing concern to a young person(s), colleagues or parents.

POOR PRACTICE:

Constitutes any behaviour which contravenes the club Coaches Codes of Conduct (Appendix 3) and Codes of Good Practice in the Rugby setting (section 7)

- Infringes on an individual's rights
- Is a failure to fulfil the highest standards of care

ROCHDALE RUFC WILL TAKE THE FOLLOWING ACTION IF A YOUNG PERSON DISCLOSES THAT HE/SHE IS CONCERNED ABOUT SOMEONES BEHAVIOR TOWARDS THEM WITHIN THE RUGBY CLUB OR AN ADULT EXPRESSES CONCERNS ABOUT THE WELFARE OF A YOUNG PERSON(S).

5.1 Compile full written record of what has been said, heard and seen as soon as possible.

5.2 Club Safeguarding officer to be informed immediately.

5.3 Club Safeguarding officer will report the matter to the RFU Ethics and Equity Manager, with copy to the CB Safeguarding Manager.

Following guidance that the issue is POOR PRACTICE then the Club Safeguarding officer should follow club disciplinary procedures for a first report of poor practice (See appendix 1).

5.4 Forward a written report on action taken to CB Safeguarding Manager and RFU Ethics and Equity Manager.

5.5 If an individual is identified by the club as being guilty of poor practice on subsequent occasions then the CB Safeguarding Manager in consultation with the RFU Ethics and Equity manager may conclude that the issue constitutes abuse and should be referred to the RFU.

Disciplinary Officer.

Following guidance that the issue is ABUSE then the club Safeguarding officer should:

5.6 If the young person requires immediate medical attention

- An ambulance must be called
- The doctor should be informed that the concern relates to Child Protection

5.7 Refer the allegation to Police or Social Services. They will give advice relating to the contacting of parents/guardians.

5.8 Inform the CB Safeguarding officer and the RFU Ethics and Equity Manager and forward a written report utilising the Incident Referral

Non action is not an option. "The welfare of the young person/s is paramount"

ROCHDALE RUFC WILL TAKE THE FOLLOWING ACTION IF THROUGH AN ADULTS OBSERVATIONS OR THROUGH A THIRD PARTY, THE CLUB BECOME AWARE OF POSSIBLE ABUSE OCCURRING AT A YOUNG PERSONS HOME OR IN SOME OTHER SETTING (OUTSIDE OF THE RUGBY CLUB).

If this happens we will:

- Ensure the safety of the young person - if he/she requires immediate treatment, call an ambulance, inform doctors of concerns and ensure they are aware that this is a Child.

Protection issue.

The following procedures will then be followed:

5.9 Concerns reported to Club Safeguarding Officer.

5.10 The Club Safeguarding Officer may seek advice from RFU Ethics and Equity Manager CB Safeguarding Manager, RFU Child Protection Helpline or NSPCC. If there is any delay in receiving advice contact must be made with Social Services.

5.10 If a formal referral is made, make it clear to Social Services/Police that this is a Child Protection referral.

5.11 All police forces have dedicated Child Protection Teams (CPTs) which deal with allegations of abuse within family setting and by people in a position of trust. In a real emergency dial 999.

5.12 Parents/carers should only be contacted following advice from Social Services.

Non action is not an option "The welfare of the young person/s is paramount"
Delay in acting can increase the risk to the child

In all cases Rochdale RUFC recognises that:

- It is often more difficult for some young people to disclose abuse than others. Young people from ethnic minorities may have regularly experienced racism which may lead them to believe that certain groups including those in authority roles do not really care about their well being. They may well feel they have good reason to question whether the response may be different.

- Disabled young people may have to overcome additional barriers before feeling that that they can disclose abuse. They may rely on the abuser for their daily care and not know of alternative sources of care. The abuse may be the only attention/affection they have experienced. There may be communication difficulties and they will almost certainly have to overcome prejudices which block our willingness to believe they may be abused or to use their medical condition to explain away indicators which in an able bodied young person would concern us.

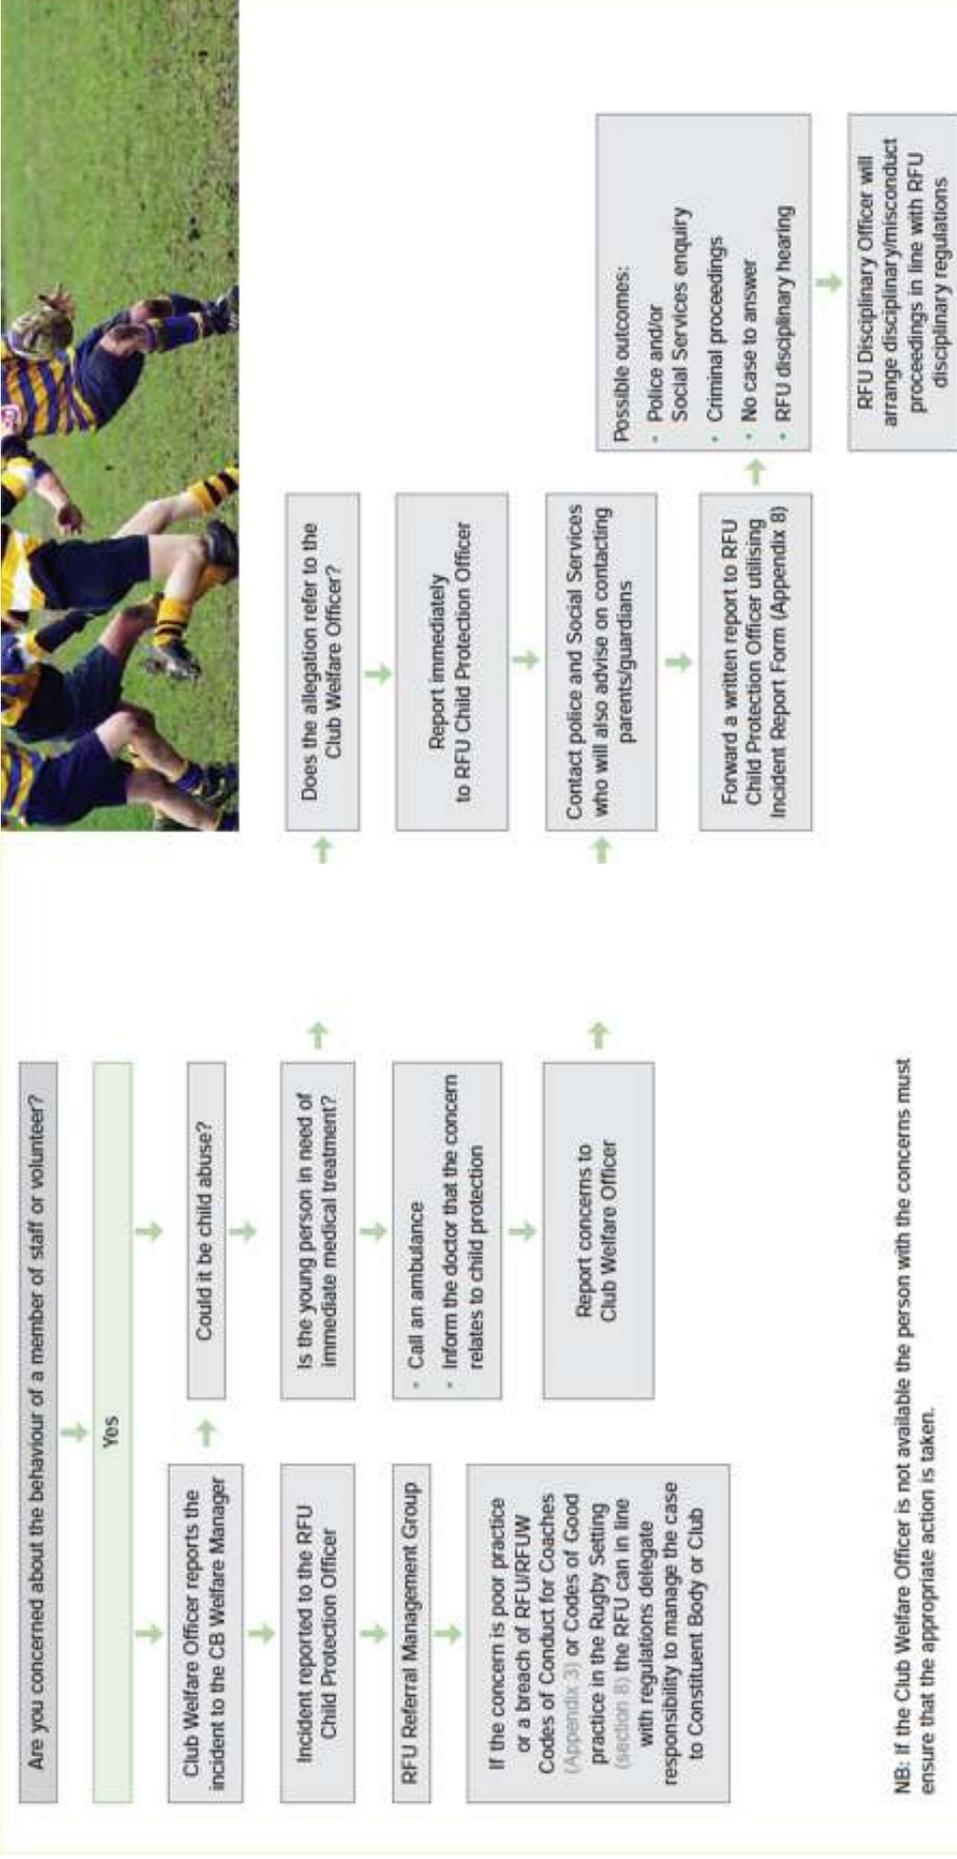

5.13 In all cases every effort will be made by the club to ensure that confidentiality is maintained

Information will be handled and disseminated on a need to know basis. This will include the following people.

- The Club/CB Safeguarding Officers
- Designated Officers within the RFU
- Person making the allegation
- Social Services and police
- Parents of the young person alleged to have been abused

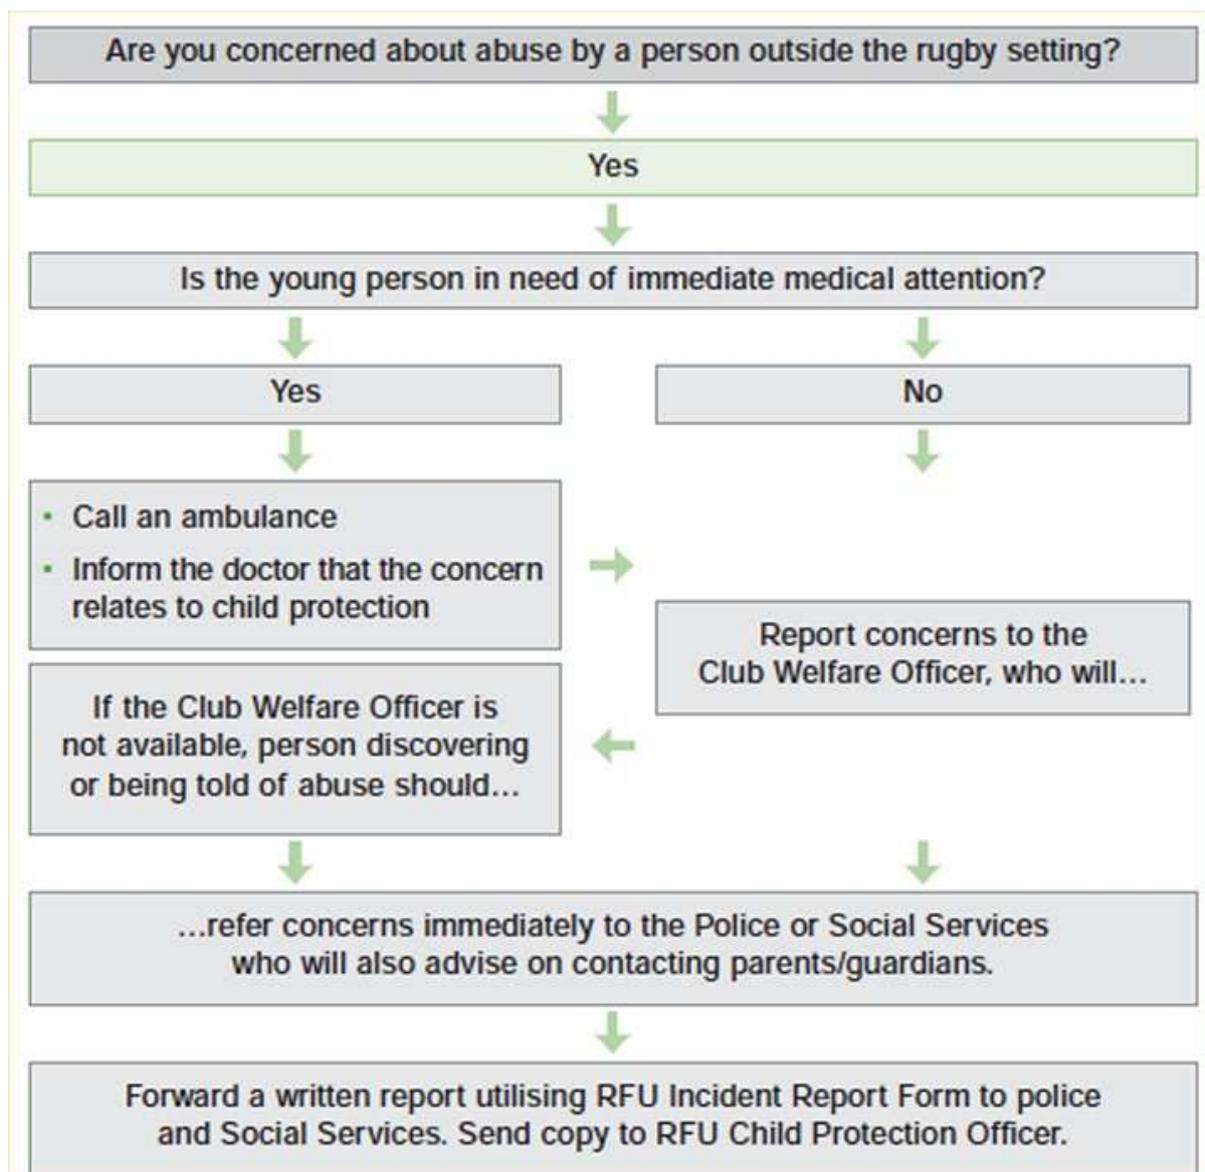

DEALING WITH CONCERNS, DISCLOSURE OR ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO ANY ADULT WITHIN RFC

We will follow the procedure prepared by the RFU as in their Flowchart reproduced here

DEALING WITH POSSIBLE ABUSE OCCURRING OUTSIDE OF THE RUGBY SETTING

We will follow the procedure prepared by the RFU as in their Flowchart reproduced here

SECTION SIX - RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION, COACHES AND VOLUNTEERS

Rochdale RUFC recognises that anyone may have the potential to abuse young people in some way and Rochdale RUFC will therefore ensure that unsuitable people are prevented from working with young people within the Rugby Club. The club recognises that under the Protection of Children Act 1999 all individuals working on behalf of the club are treated as employees whether paid or volunteers.

Rochdale RUFC will carry out the following recruitment checks

6.1 Advertising

If any form of advertising is used to recruit staff, it will reflect the

- Responsibilities of the role
- Level of experience or qualification required (e.g. working with children an advantage)
- The club stance on Child Protection

6.2 Checks and References

• All adults within the club who have "regular supervisory contact with young people" will undertake CRB disclosure. These people will include:

- Professional Staff (if relevant)
- All coaches/assistant coaches
- Heads of Mini/Midi Rugby sections
- Heads of Youth Rugby Sections
- Team Managers
- All referees who manage mini/midi and youth games
- Safeguarding Officers
- Physiotherapists

6.3 Training

Rochdale RUFC will offer training which will enable all adults working with young people to recognise their responsibilities with regard to their own good practice and the reporting poor practice or concerns of possible abuse.

Rochdale RUFC will offer the following opportunities to adults working with young people

- "RFU Guide to Best practice and Child Protection"
- "An appropriate RFU Coaching Course"

It is vital that all staff working with young people in Rugby Union are conversant with

- Player centred Coaching techniques
- How to work with young people safely and effectively

6.7 Monitoring and Appraisal

Rochdale RUFC will provide appropriate feedback to adults working with young people which will;

- Identify training needs
- Set new goals
- Highlight concerns about inappropriate behaviour

SECTION SEVEN - GOOD PRACTICE AT ROCHDALE RUFC

The following section sets out Good Practice Procedures which all those involved in the delivery of Rugby Union to young people at Rochdale RUFC will adhere to;

7.1 Good Practice Procedures

7.1.1 The club has in place a Safeguarding Policy with an implementation and monitoring programme

7.1.2 A designated officer (Club Safeguarding Officer) is appointed with representation on relevant club committees

7.1.3 The Safeguarding Policy will be publicised and available to show the clubs commitment to providing a safe environment

7.1.4 The club has procedures in place to deal with complaints or concerns which are available to all club members

7.1.5 The Club will provide training opportunities for adults who work with young people

7.1.6 The club has Codes of Conduct and Codes of Practice in place and will ensure that all coaches sign up to the relevant codes

7.1.7 Parents/carers will be made aware of what the organisation and coaches are doing and also of the correct procedures to express any concerns they may have

7.1.8 The club will ensure that there is an Equity Policy and that all discrimination is challenged and prohibited

7.1.9 The club will ensure that all adults who regularly supervise young people undertake CRB disclosure

7.1.10 The club will ensure guidelines are in place to control and monitor the use of photographic images of children (see appendix 7)

7.1.11 The club has an anti-bullying policy which is actively promoted (See appendix 4)

7.1.11.1 The club will monitor coaches and provide them with feedback with particular reference to "poor practice"

7.2 Rochdale RUFC Codes of Good Practice for Coaches and Officials

7.2.1 Always be publicly open when working with young people. Avoid situations where you and an individual child are completely unobserved.

7.2.2 Rugby is a physical game. Situations will occur when, in order to teach or coach certain techniques, it is necessary to make contact with the player. However the following must apply

- Parents and young players must be made aware of situations in which this may happen when they join the club
- Physical handling should only be used for safety reasons or where there is no other way of coaching the technique

7.2.3 Contact or touching which is inappropriate (not directly related to the coaching context) or aggressive, will not be tolerated.

7.2.4 If groups are to be supervised in changing rooms, always ensure that individuals work in pairs, and that gender is appropriate. Ideally young people should not have to change at the same time or in the same place as adults.

7.2.5 Where mixed teams compete away from home they should always be accompanied by at least one male and one female adult.

7.2.6 Coaches must place the well-being and safety of the player above the development of performance. Coaches should:

- Avoid overplaying of players (particularly talented players). All players need and deserve equal opportunity to play
- Remember that young people play for fun and enjoyment and that winning is only a part of it
- Motivate youngsters through positive feedback and constructive criticism
- Ensure that contact skills are taught in a safe, secure manner paying due regard to the physical development of young players.
- Never allow young players to train/play when injured.
- Ensure equipment and facilities are safe and appropriate to the age and ability of the players.

7.2.7 Coaches should hold current RFU coaching awards or a recognised qualification.

7.2.8 Coaches should keep up to date with knowledge and technical skills and should be aware of their own limitations. Coaches should only work within the limitations of their knowledge and qualifications

7.2.9 Coaches must ensure that the activities which they direct or advocate are appropriate to the age, maturity and ability of the players.

7.2.10 Coaches should always promote the positive aspects of their sport (e.g. fair play), and never condone law violations or use of prohibited substances.

7.2.11 Coaches must consistently display high standards of personal behaviour and appearance

7.2.12 Coaches should never overtly criticise players or use language or actions which may cause the player to lose self esteem or confidence.

7.2.13 People should not be allowed to drink alcohol or encouraged to drink alcohol if they are under the legal age to do so.

Practices to be avoided

Everyone should also be aware that, as a general rule, it does not make sense for a coach to:

- Spend amounts of time alone with young people away from others.
- Take young people alone on car journeys, however short.

If it should arise that such situations are unavoidable they should only take place with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge in the club/governing body and/or a person with parental responsibility for the player.

If you accidentally hurt a player, or cause distress in any manner, or the player appears to respond in a sexual manner to your actions, or misunderstands, or misinterprets something you have done, report the incident to a colleague supported by a written report of the incident as soon as possible.

Parents/carers should also be informed of the occurrence.

7.3 Practice that is prohibited by the Rochdale RUFC Safeguarding Policy

Individuals should never;

7.3.1 Take young people to their home or other secluded places where they will be alone.

7.3.2 Engage in rough, physical games, sexually provocative games or horseplay with young people.

7.3.3 Take part as player in any dynamic contact games or training sessions with young people. If there is a need for an adult to facilitate learning within a coaching session through the use of coaching aids e.g. contact pads, this should be done with the utmost care and with due regard to the safety and well being of the young players.

7.3.4 Share a room with a young person unless the individual is the parent/guardian of that young person.

7.3.5 Allow any form of inappropriate touching, (not specifically related to the coaching of the game).

7.3.6 Make sexually suggestive remarks to a young person even in fun.

7.3.7 Use inappropriate language or allow young players to use inappropriate language unchallenged.

7.3.8 Allow allegations by a young person to go unchallenged, unrecorded, or not acted upon.

7.3.9 Do things of a personal nature for a young person that they can do for themselves unless you have been requested to do so by the parents/carer (Please note that it is recognised that some young people will always need help with things such as lace tying, adjustment of Tag belts, fitting head guards).

7.3.10 Depart the Rugby Club until the safe dispersal of all young people is complete.

7.3.11 Cause an individual to lose self esteem by embarrassing, humiliating or undermining the individual.

7.3.12 Treat some young people more favourably than others.

7.3.13 Agree to meet a young person on your own on a one to one basis.

7.4 POSITIONS OF TRUST

All adults who work with young people are in a position of trust which has been vested in them by the parents, the sport and the young person. This relationship can be described as one in which the adult is in a position of power and influence by virtue of their position.

In Rugby Union most adults in a position of trust recognise that there are certain boundaries in the coach/player relationship with the young player which must not be crossed. The relationship is no different to that between a school teacher and the pupils in their care.

Rochdale RUFC Code of conduct on the Abuse of Trust

7.4.1 Any behaviour, which encourages a physical, or emotionally dependant relationship to develop between the person in a position of trust and the young person in their care must be avoided.

7.4.2 All those within the club have a duty to raise concerns about the behaviour by coaches, officials, volunteers, administrators which may be harmful to the young people in the club, without prejudice to their own position.

7.4.3 Allegations relating to a breach of the Code of Conduct will be investigated according to RFU disciplinary procedures.

APPENDIX 1

Club procedures to manage cases of poor practice

Poor practice is defined as any behaviour which contravenes RFU Codes of Conduct (Fair Play Codes) or RFU Guidance for Good Practice

1. Once an incident is reported to the Club Safeguarding Officer she will consult with RFU Ethics and Equity Manager in order to ascertain whether the allegation is poor practice, bullying or abuse
2. Once the incident has been identified as poor practice and in consultation with senior club officials (Club Chairman/Youth Chairman) a decision will be made whether or not to suspend, temporarily, the person accused. Each case will be considered on its merits
3. A disciplinary hearing may be called. The panel should be made up of three club members with regard to the following criteria
 - No person who has been involved in bringing the case to the disciplinary hearing should sit on the panel
 - Senior management of the club must be represented
 - If the case relates to poor coaching practice, experience in this field must be represented
4. The accused will be advised of receipt of the report and provided with copies
5. The accused will be invited to attend the hearing which must be held at a convenient time for him/her
6. The accused must be given sufficient advance notice of the hearing
7. The accused must be given the opportunity to be accompanied to the hearing by a person of their choice, offer their side of the story and call witnesses.
8. Once the disciplinary panel reaches a decision it should be communicated to the accused and confirmed in writing
9. A copy of the findings should be sent to the CB Safeguarding Officer and RFU Ethics and Equity Manager

Power of the Club Disciplinary Panel

1. Temporary suspension
2. Person may only coach whilst supervised
3. Coach must undertake RFU Best Practice and Child Protection Course
4. Coach must attend ScUk "Good Practice and Child Protection Course
5. Coach must attend appropriate RFU Coaching Course

APPENDIX 2

Terms of Reference for Club Safeguarding Officer

1. To ensure club has a Child Protection Policy and implementation plan
2. To ensure Codes of Conduct are well publicised and adhered to
3. In consultation with County Safeguarding Officer to ensure all reported incidents are managed at the appropriate level in line with RFU procedures
4. To ensure all relevant club members are aware of training opportunities
5. To ensure all parents are aware of the club policy on Child Protection and the correct protocols for voicing concerns
6. To be aware of local Social Services and Area Child Protection Committee contacts
7. To sit on relevant club committees

APPENDIX 3

Coaches Code of Conduct

1. All rugby coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person with whom they work and treat them equally within the context of Rugby Union
2. All rugby coaches must place the physical and emotional well being of all young players above all other considerations, including the development of performance
3. The relationship that a rugby coach develops with the players with whom they work must be based on mutual trust and respect
4. All rugby coaches must ensure that all activities undertaken are appropriate to the age, maturity, experience and ability of the young players
5. All rugby coaches must encourage young players to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance
6. All rugby coaches should clarify with the young players (and their parents/carers) what is expected of them both on and off the rugby field and also what they are entitled to expect from the coach
7. All rugby coaches should work in partnership with others within the game (officials, doctors, physiotherapists, sports scientists) to ensure the wellbeing, safety and enjoyment of all young players
8. All rugby coaches must promote the positive aspects of the sport e.g. Fair Play etc. Violations of the Laws of the Game, behaviour contrary to the spirit of the Laws of the Game or relevant regulations or the use of prohibited techniques or substances must never be condoned

Anti Bullying Policy

Bullying is not easy to define, can take many forms and is usually repeated over a period of time.

The three main types of bullying are: physical (e.g. hitting, kicking), verbal (e.g. racist or homophobic remarks, threats, name calling) and emotional (e.g. isolating an individual from activities).

They will all include:

- Deliberate hostility and aggression towards the victim
- A victim who is weaker than the bully or bullies
- An outcome which is always painful and distressing for the victim.

Bullying behaviour may also include: -

- Other forms of violence
- Sarcasm, spreading rumours, persistent teasing or theft
- Tormenting, ridiculing, humiliating
- Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
- Unwanted physical contact or abusive or offensive comment of a sexual nature

Emotional and verbal bullying is more likely to be found in rugby than physical violence, it is also difficult to cope with or prove. It is of paramount importance that all clubs develop their own anti-bullying policy to which all its members, coaches, players, staffing volunteers and parents subscribe to and accept.

Rochdale RUFC is prepared to:

- Take the problem seriously
- Investigate any incidents
- Talk to the bullies and victims separately

Decide on appropriate action, such as:

- Obtain apology from the bully(ies) to the victim
- Inform parents of the bully(ies)
- Insist on the return of items "borrowed" or stolen
- Insist bullies compensate the victim

APPENDIX 7

Photographic Images

Rochdale RUFC and RFU Guidelines

While the Rugby Football Union and the Rugby Football Union for Women recognises that publicity and pictures of young people enjoying rugby are essential to promote the sport and a healthy lifestyle, the following rules should be observed:

1. Ensure parents/guardian/young person have granted their consent for the taking and publication of photographic images and have signed and returned the Parent/Guardian and Young Person Permission Form. It is strongly /recommended that the relevant form (See page 28) is incorporated into the annual club registration form and will therefore only need to be completed once a year
2. All young people must be appropriately dressed for the activity taking place.
3. Photography or recording should focus on the activity rather than a particular young person and personal details which might make a young person vulnerable, such as their exact address, should never be revealed.
4. Where an individual has achieved success in the game (e.g. when selected for representative side or showing triumph over adversity) permission must be gained from parent/guardian and young person to use photographs/recordings and relevant details.
5. Where possible, to reflect the RFU/W Equity Policy photographs/recordings should represent the diverse range of young people participating in rugby.
6. Anyone taking photographs or recording at any rugby event must have a valid reason for doing so and seek the permission of the organisers/persons in charge.
